1. Read the text and answer the questions.Wednesday May 20th

Barry Kent beat me up in the cloakroom today. He hung me on one of the coat hooks. He called me a 'coppers' nark' and other things too bad to write down. My grandma found out about the menacing (my father didn't want her to know on account of her diabetes). She listened to it all, then she put her hat on, thinned her lips and went out. She was gone one hour and seven minutes, she came in, took her coat off, fluffed her hair out, took £27.18 from the anti-mugger belt round her waist. She said; 'He won't bother you again, Adrian, but if he does, let me know'. Then she got the tea ready. Pilchards, tomatoes and ginger cake. I bought her a box of diabetic chocolates from the chemist's as a token of my esteem.

Thursday May 21st

It is all round the school that an old lady of seventy-six frightened Barry Kent and his dad into returning my menaces money. Barry Kent didn't dare show his face. His gang are electing a new leader.

Friday May 22nd

I have decided to paint my room black; it is a colour I like. I can't live a moment longer with Noddy wallpaper. At my age it is positively indecent to wake up to Big Ears and all the rest of the Toyland idiots running around the walls. My father says I can use any colour I like so long as I buy the paint and do it myself.

Saturday May 23rd

I have decided to be a poet. My father said that there isn't a suitable career structure for poets and no pensions and other boring things, but I am quite decided. He tried to interest me in becoming a computer operator, but I said, 'I need to put my soul into my work and it is well known that computers haven't got a soul'. My father said, 'The Americans are working on it'. But I can't wait that long. Bought two tins of black vinyl silk-finish paint and a half-inch brush. Started painting as soon as I got home from the DIY centre. Noddy keeps showing through the black paint. Looks like it'll need two coats. Just my luck!

Sunday May 24th

Moon's Last Quarter

Now put on two coats of black paint! Noddy still showing through! Black paw-marks over landing and stairs. Can't get paint off hands. Hairs falling out of brush. Fed up with whole thing. Room looks dark and gloomy. Father hasn't lifted a finger to help. Black paint everywhere.

Adapted from the text by Sue TOWNSEND. The Secret diary of Adrian Mole aged, 1982

a) What kind of text is it? [2 points]

It's a diary / a personal diary.

b) What did his grandma do, when she knew about Adrian's problems? [2 points]

She left the house to meet Barry Kent and recover Adrian's money.

c) How old is Adrian's grandma? [2 points]

She's seventy-six years old.

d) Did Adrian meet Barry Kent the following day? [2 points]

No, he didn't (because Barry didn't go to school).

e) Why does Adrian want to paint his room? [2 points]

Because he doesn't like the pictures of the wallpaper.

f) Who helped Adrian paint the room? [2 points]

Nobody. He did the work by himself.

g) Why doesn't Adrian want to be a computer operator? [2 points]

Because he needs to put his soul into his work and computers haven't got a soul.

h). Mention three problems Adrian had to face after painting his room. [3 points]

"Noddy still showing through."

"Black paw-marks over landing and stairs."

"Can't get paint off hands."

"Hairs falling out of brush."

"Room looks dark and gloomy."

"Black paint everywhere."

|---|
| 1. Went over Noddy's hat with kid's paintbrush and last of black paint, but bloody hat bells are still showing through! |
| 2. Finished last bell at 11.25 PM. Know just how Rembrandt must have felt after painting the Sistine Chapel in Venice. 2 AM. The paint is dry. Thank God the bloody bells don't show through! My father has just been in to tell me to go to sleep, he said my room reminded him of a Salvador Dali painting. |
| 3. Third coat. Slight improvement, only Noddy's hat showing through now. |
| 4. Went over hat bells with black felt-tip pen, did sixty-nine tonight, only a hundred and twenty-four to go. |

Someone strong who likes concerts

I am a guy trying to live crazy dreams on my bucket lists. I am a concert junkie, I go to shows all the time. One thing have seen / see others do at concerts is sitting on someone's shoulder during a song. As crazy as it sounds, it is something that I want to experience at least once in my life. Unfortunately all my friends are smaller than me, so I can have them on my shoulder but none of them are strong enough to hold me up. I am not the smallest person, I weigh 200lb/90kg, so I know many won't be able to do this, but if there is someone who is bigger and maybe lifts a lot at the gym, loves going to concerts, and thinks he can handle this, here is my offer: I take care / will take care of your concert ticket and, as I said, if I get just 1 full song in, I will be / would be happy but I would pay $10 for each full song I sit on your shoulder, plus a drink from the bar there, if you like.

So if anyone thinks he can do this and would like to do this at a concert, send me a message.

Write an advertisement where you offer yourself for a job position. Describe your strengths and professional skills in detail. Write about your current situation and previous experience. (about 70 words)

Críteris per corregir la redacció (sobre 25 punts)

Valoració global (coherència i adequació): 10 punts

10-8 punts: El text respon al tema demanat i incorpora els requeriments que es demanen. Es desenvolupa de manera adequada, ordenada i comprensible.

7 o 6 punts: El text respon a la tasca, però no incorpora tots els requeriments demanats. Es perceben idees desordenades, malgrat que el text és coherent.

5 o 4 punts: El text respon a la tasca, però presenta problemes de coherència i adequació al registre, tot i que pot incorporar o no els requeriments demanats.

3 o 2 punts: L'escrit no respon gaire a la tasca. Resulta difícil de llegir, presenta bastants problemes de coherència, adequació al registre i organització.

1 o 0 punts: Text no avaluable, massa curt, no respon a la tasca i no incorpora cap dels requeriments que es demanen. Text incomprensible.

Riquesa lingüística: 5 punts.

4-5 punts: Utilitza un ventall ampli d'estructures, vocabulari i connectors de manera adequada al context. S'arrisca per aconseguir la comunicació. S'admet algun error de lèxic.

2-3 punts: Utilitza un ventall poc ampli d'estructures, vocabulari i connectors que es repeteixen.

0-1 punts: El text presenta moltes interferències lingüístiques i/o errors. No hi ha puntuació.

Correcció lingüística (morfosintaxi i ortografia): 10 punts

Per cada errada ortogràfica o gramatical descomptem 1 punt; en descomptem 2 si l'errada és greu i dificulta la comprensió del text. No hi ha un màxim de punts a descomptar.

Observacions

Aquestes definicions només són orientatives, la qual cosa no implica que, obligatòriament, la puntuació final hagi de ser un nombre enter.

The Mediterranean diet is a way of eating based on the traditional foods and drinks of the countries surrounding the Mediterranean Sea. The Mediterranean diet is not a diet, as in “go on a diet,” even though it is a great way to lose weight or improve your health. Rather, it is a lifestyle —including foods, activities, meals with friends and family, and wine in moderation with meals.

Research has shown that the traditional Mediterranean diet reduces the risk of heart disease. In fact, a meta-analysis of more than 1.5 million healthy adults demonstrated that following a Mediterranean diet was associated with a reduced risk of cardiovascular mortality as well as overall mortality. The Mediterranean diet is also associated with a reduced incidence of cancer, and Parkinson’s and Alzheimer’s diseases. For these reasons, most if not all major scientific organizations encourage healthy adults to adapt a style of eating like that of the Mediterranean diet for prevention of major chronic diseases.

Here are some specific steps to get you started:

- Eat your veggies and fruits —and switch to whole grains. An abundance and variety of plant foods should make up the majority of your meals.
- Go nuts. Keep almonds, cashews, pistachios and walnuts on hand for a quick snack. Try tahini (blended sesame seeds) as a dip or spread for bread.
- Pass on the butter. Try olive oil as a healthy replacement for butter or margarine. Use it in cooking.
- Spice it up. Herbs and spices make food tasty and are also rich in health-promoting substances. Season your meals with herbs and spices rather than salt.
- Go fish. Eat fish once or twice a week. Fresh or water-packed tuna, salmon, trout and sardine are healthy choices. Grilled fish tastes good and requires little clean-up. Avoid fried fish.
- Choose low-fat dairy. Limit higher fat dairy products such as whole or 2 percent milk, cheese and ice cream. Switch to skim milk, fat-free yoghurt and low-fat cheese.
- If it’s OK with your doctor, have a glass of wine at dinner. If you don’t drink alcohol, you don’t need to start. Drinking purple grape juice may be an alternative to wine.

Looking for small plates, finger food or party recipes? What about hummus? As well as being a pretty easy dish to make, home-made hummus boasts a crazy amount of health benefits.

In the bowl of a food processor, combine the tahini and lemon juice and process for 1 minute, clean the sides and bottom of the bowl and then process for 30 seconds more. This extra time helps cream the tahini, making the hummus smooth and creamy.

Add the olive oil, minced garlic, cumin, and a 1/2 teaspoon of salt to the whipped tahini and lemon juice. Process for 30 seconds, clean the sides and bottom of the bowl, then process another 30 seconds or until it's well blended.

Now, open, drain, and wash the chickpeas. Add half of the chickpeas to the food processor and process for 1 minute. Clean sides and bottom of the bowl, then add remaining chickpeas and process until the mixture is thick and quite smooth -1 to 2 minutes.

Most likely, the hummus will be too thick or still have tiny bits of chickpea. To fix this, with the food processor turned on, slowly, add 2 to 3 tablespoons of water until you reach the perfect consistency.

Taste for salt and adjust as needed. Spoon into serving dish, add a little olive oil over the top and finally sprinkle with toasted pine nuts and chopped parsley.
